Lee District.

It is not quite clear what good is ex-pected to come out of the bill which has been introduced in the House of Delegates proposing to annex to Richmond Lee district in the county of Henrico.

That the district will be included in our corporate limits after awhile we have no doubt, but at this time neither the city nor the county people are ready for it. Therefore, it would be well to have this bill dismissed and let us all await the formation of a public opinion which will be attended with the desired success. We are now in danger of putting men on regreat good and much harm may come improved localities do not wish any more the streets in which they are interested are graded, guttered, and curbed. When a satisfactory policy is adopted to meet their wishes their objections will be removed. We are working now under a very they can be a controlled to the controlled to madequate and unequal system. The general street fund is small, and for years to come it cannot be much increased with. | tures of our friend. out an increase of taxation, and the funds appropriated to it are not always spent where improvements are most needed, because, according to custom, they are equally divided among the six wards. Hence we see fine streets made finer. while neighborhoods that have very poor streets are compelled to wait and wait. And unless we agree upon a more sensible plan they will wait indefinitely. The only choice we have is between raising taxation and taxing owners of abut-ting property for street improvements made. The bill of Mr. Dooley is a step in book) is having a wide circulation. Hunthe right direction. It is not perfect, but it can be made nearly so. It would be far has it been seized upon by the "humor-more acceptable if it contained a provision ous" paragraphers. Everywhere it is rethat of the cost assessed on any square, within our present limits at least, the city should pay one third and the propertyowners on each side of the street one third. This is a rule that obtains in some other cities, and if adopted here would reconcile many of our people to the special-assess-Think about it.

Meanwhile be assured that annexation will come in due season. Do not attempt to force it now.

The Olcott Settlement

Danville) is favorable to the Olcott settle ment, but thinks that he is debarred by a promise made to his constituency from supporting it ess otherwise instructed by his people.—Dan After seeing the forthcoming report of the Debt Commission and the message thereon of the Governor we hope that Mr. James will not regard it as necessary to be These papers will probably show that the OLCOTT plan of settlement is more favorable to Virginia than the RIDDLEBERGER bill. If so, Mr. James can conscientiously support it and keep all the pledges that he made to his people, as we feel sure that he did not promise to stick to the RIDDLEment could be secured.

The report of our commissioners has been prepared by Hon. W. D. Dabney, of Albemarie, a man of great carnestness and ability, who is a thorough student of the nistory of the debt, and wno has had the aid of well-known accounting officers. We may, therefore, look for a paper which will be not only a comprehensive presen-tation of the merits of the proposed settlement, but a valuable chapter in our history as actting forth the true position of Virginia with respect to all this debt ques-

Government by Districting. Already a bill has been introduced into the Ohio Legislature providing for dis-tricting that State for the election of Conmen so as to enable the Republicans ct seventeen and the Democrats only four of the members of the national House of Representatives to whom that State is entitled. New York, owing to Governor Hill's extraordinary and unexampled leadership, may soon be districted in the interest of the Democratic party for the election of Congressmen and members of the State Legislature, and so the Democratic loss in Ohio may be partially if no that State was districted for the election of electors of President of the United States so as to give the Democrats " a show." In a word, we seem to be coming to the point where there is to be government by districting. These republican institutions of ours are wonderful institutions.

Postal Savings Banks-

Mr. Storms has introduced into the National House of Representatives a bill to provide for the establishment of postal savings banks and the encouragement of small savings. This is a measure which was advocated by this paper when its founder was its editor. It is a scheme which has been tried and found successful in other countries, and which would no doubt prove doubly successful in this country. Some men who would save small sums out of their earnings to be described in a Government bank will not Mr. STORER has introduced into the Naposited in a Government bank will not save any sum to be deposited in the hands of men who do not act for the Govern-ment. They distrust—unjustly distrust, we might say—the officials of institutions whom they know only as such officials.

Anyhow let us have the postal savings banks and not say a word against the other

New York and the Presidency. nor Campbell is right. New York has wriding Democratic presidential candi-ing enough. The West is to furnish the this year.—Globe Democrat.

We are not so sure of that. Indeed, we shall not be surprised if the next President of the United States is elected without sounting the vote of New York. Not that few York will fail to vote for him, but because the Demograph are going to necessary 223 electoral votes.

The country is ripe for a revolution of that sort. BLARKE is out of the way—totally, completely, indubitably out of the way. Harrison is the only aspirant left in the field; and Harrison is nobody.

Let us hope that sectionalism will next fall be buried in the grave with the Republican party, never to be resurrected. The prospect is good for such a result.

The prospect is good for such a result.

Tobacco in Virginia and North Carolina-

according to the special census reports just completed and which were gathered as of the crop-year 1889 there were in the United States at that time 205,862 planters of tobacco who cultivated 692,990 acres of land and produced leaf weighing 488,255,000 pounds and valued at $34,844,449. Kentucky headed the list with a pr duct of 221,830,303 pounds valued at $13,-155,297. Virginia was second in weight of product; but North Carolina was second m value of product. The other important tobacco-growing States were Ohio, Penn-sylvania, Tennessee, Connecticut, Wis-consin, and New York.

The Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette is the eading Republican paper in Ohio, says the Delphos (O.) Courant. We think we have heretofore had occasion to make that remark. Nevertheless, that paper did no lead" the Republicans of the Ohio Le gislature into the Foragen camp, but led them into a sort of ADULLUM's cave, where now they are engaged in criminating the successful Shermanites. The election of SHERMAN was more mortifying to the Commercial-Gazette than to FORAKER if possible. However, our Cincinnati contem-porary will not lose a subscriber worth having because of its independent course in this matter. The Administration was too strong for FORAKER, HALSTEAD, and the "good Deacon SMITH."

The way that the people of St. Paul are going to work to secure the National Demo-eratic Convention shows how thoroughly cord against annexation who may not in earnest they are. A guarantee fund of easily change their minds, but who, if not prematurely forced to take a stand, will gradually learn to favor the scheme. Mr. George Hickman, an old resident of Accomac, whose mind had been impaired for several years, was sent to the Eastern Lunatic Asylum at Williamsburg last week, but the old man died in three days after reaching the asylum. His remains were brought home to-day for interment at his late home, near Cashville. NORTHAMPTON TEACHERS.

NORTHAMPTON TEACHERS.

The third meeting of the Teachers' Association of Northampton county will be held on Friday and Saturday of this week at Cape Charles City. State-Superintendent John E. Massey, 'Professor Levin Irvin Handy, of Delaware; Professor William H. Deshiell, of Princess Anne, Md., and Professor Willis H. Jenkins, of Portsmouth, Va., are expected to be present and deliver addresses. Professor Handy will deliver his celebrated lecture on "Patrick Henry, Orator and Statesman," in Parson's Opera-House Friday evening.

In the new apportionment bill for the congressional districts it is the almost unanimous sentiment of the people on the Eastern Shore that this section shall be put in the Norfolk district. The geographical condition as well as the easy means of communication between Norfolk and the Eastern Shore counties demand this

In our list of exchanges there are none that "fill the bill" like the Richmond Disparch. It is a paper that grows, develops, and improves. It surpasses all of its competitors in its particular sphere—that of being a State newspaper. When you want to talk about a paper that every Virginian knows about and loves talk of the Disparch. We are glad to say our esteemed contemporary does not grow rusty with age, but appears younger as the days go by.—West Point Virginian and Star.

The Richmond Disparch's eight-page paper New-Year's day was interesting and valuable as a matter of reference. It contained a complete record of the city during the year 1891, which showed intelligence and care in its preparation. The Disparch is always bright and entertaining and keeps its readers fully posted in all local, State, national, or general news of the day.—Leesburg Mirror.
